
Day Trips From Corfu

helloworld - 28/10/2009 02:41

Hi.

I'm going to Corfu in December for 10 days and I wondered whether anyone can recommend any good day trips? Both on or off the island. I heard that you can get a boat to Albania?

Prices and stories would be great.

Thanks.

=====

Re:Day Trips From Corfu

touristuser - 01/06/2011 12:57

I will gladly give up faster data speeds for coverage. The ability to make and recv calls would be great. Most of the time there is wifi close if I need bandwidth. AT&T is horrible in Va and even worse in Charlotte, NC. I have a 10 min. commute and 2 areas with "No Service" along a major roadway. I hope things are going to get better for both carriers and ultimately, the users! transfer iPod to iPod Oh, and people want to and moan about how stupid it will be when Apple inevitably puts a camera on the iPad next year, and very few consider the possibilities of this kind of stuff. Imagine once this technology is stronger and it can translate entire pages on the fly, translate and provide document sized viewing and editing

=====

Re:Day Trips From Corfu

Lydia2011 - 11/07/2011 09:05

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The man in the middle of the bitter labor dispute between NFL owners and players is rarely happier these days than when he is carefully sliding a 40-pound rock down a 150-foot sheet of ice toward a painted target, with sweepers furiously brushing the path and steering the stone toward the middle.

Magistrate Judge Arthur J. Boylan was introduced to curling a few years ago, and can be found at one of two curling clubs in St. Paul three nights a week.

Somehow it makes sense that one of most respected mediators in the country has become enamored with a sport that demands quiet concentration and a delicate touch to keep the game from spinning out of control.

But Boylan's son says it is the social nature of curling that appeals to the judge, even more than the strategy and patience required of something nicknamed "chess on ice."

"The actual game is precise," Art G. Boylan said. "But I think it's the very collegial atmosphere that he really likes. During the games everyone on both teams is spending time together. He just enjoys it."

=====