
A month in South west of USA and Hawaii

Hi all,

I am planning to visit USA in May for a month. I will be flying into San Francisco and then drive to Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Grand Canyon and Yosemite national park for 3 weeks and spend the last week in Hawaii by flying from Las Vegas to Honolulu and fly back Singapore from there. How many days should I spend in each place ? Are there other good places which I should include into my trip?

This is my first trip to USA, hope to have some advices for my planning.

Totally agree with you. All I did to mine is 3m di-noc to give it a little character but the shape is still visible. ^_^ mac wmv converter all those millions in R&D to get the design "just right" so you can slap a junky plastic screen or case on it. yeah. kinda defeats the purpose of the aesthetics of the phone.
