I was hoping they would drop the price 50$ when they released the white iPhone 4. I think that would have made everybody's mouth drop to the floor and i think they could have sold a lot more if they had. I mean it's a no brained I know the phone is a year old and still holds up, but still it's a year old and I think they should drop the price a little to make it a little more inciting to consumers. iphone to mac transfer DUI checkpoints are borderline illegal- infringing on the rights of citizens. The only way they get away with it is by offering public notifications in newspapers. They've made the info public (as they must) so there is nothing wrong with these apps compiling this data for people to use.
